IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO.292 OF 2007

Mohammed Arif Jafar Khan .. Petitioner.
Vs.
The State of Maharashtra & Ors. .. Respondents.

Mrs.A.N.Z.Ansari with Mrs.N.S.Ayubi for the petitioner.
Mrs.U.V.Kejriwal, APP for the State.

CORAM : SMT.RANJANA DESAI &
D.B.BHOSALE, JJ.

DATED : 14TH MARCH, 2007.

P.C.:

. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. In the affidavit of Mr.Khandare, Jailor Group II attached to Kolhapur Central Prison he has stated that the application is rejected on the ground that the surety offered by the petitioner/convict has construction business; he is out of station and, therefore, he will not be able to keep a check on the petitioner/convict. Mrs.Ansari, learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner shall offer another surety. She states that the petitioner will prefer fresh application and offer another surety and prayed that the concerned authority may be directed to consider the application expeditiously. She states that she will file application within one from today. Hence the following order:

. If the petitioner prefers fresh application for furlough, the concerned authority may consider the application independently and expeditiously within a period of two weeks from the date of its receipt. The writ petition is disposed of.
